

JUGAAD LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

In sessions: JLP Emerging Leaders Learning and Growing

Jugaad Leadership Program(JLP) has been in session for four months. In the past few months, the JLP 2018 cohort participated in many different learning sessions and visited places in St. Cloud and the Capital.

During the May session, JLP emerging leaders had the opportunity to learn the importance of boards and commissions firsthand from St. Cloud Mayor Dave Kleis. In the same session, JLP Board member Ryan Daniel also led a simulation of a board meeting with the emerging leaders.

Dr. Sangeeta Jha gave a presentation during the morning session to help the JLP cohort build and increase their knowledge of Diversity & Inclusion.

In April, the cohort was also given the opportunity to visit the Minnesota State Capitol in Saint Paul. A guided tour was provided to the cohort and led by JLP board members Eunice Adjei, Ryan Daniel, and Emmanuel Oppong.

JLP's 2018 cohort will continue their learning in the next several months.

JLP & Board Chair Eunice Adjei Featured in Statewide News

The Jugaad Leadership Program, its board chair, Eunice Adjei and other board members were recently featured in MinnPost. Eunice Adjei was selected to be featured in MinnPost's New American in Greater Minnesota section.

In the article titled, "To get their voices heard': One woman's mission to help immigrants take on leadership roles in St. Cloud," Eunice mentioned the creation of JLP, and the mission behind the program.

"Jugaad Leadership Program was created to decrease the economic gap and increase professional capital," board member and co-founder Emmanuel Oppong was quoted in the article.
